

DARE TO DO

MORE THAN 370 GRADUATE DEGREE PROGRAMS ACROSS THREE CAMPUSES AND ONLINE — TO EXPLORE THEM, START WITH THE GRADUATE SCHOOL

REQUIREMENTS

Admission to the University of Washington is necessarily a selective process. Prospective graduate students normally must meet the following minimum requirements, but please check with the department to which you are applying, as requirements can vary.

- ▶ Hold a baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or university in the United States, or its equivalent from a foreign institution.
- ▶ Have earned at least a 3.0 or B grade-point-average in the most recent two years of study.

DIVERSITY

The University of Washington values diversity in its broadest context, reaching out to underrepresented individuals to recognize what they have to offer the community. Diversity within the student body benefits the individual and enhances the educational experience for everyone.

HOW TO APPLY

Departmental application deadlines and requirements may vary. You are strongly encouraged to get more information about the specific graduate program you are interested in before applying. Apply online: grad.uw.edu

Fees: $85, per application for degree-seeking applicants
$75, for non-degree-seeking applicants

(Fees are payable only online with MasterCard or Visa credit/debit cards. Degree-seeking students applying to more than one program must pay $85 for each.)
